ments to vice. A PRIMARY DEPARTMENT Has been fitted up at considerable expense and placed under the charge of an experienced Pre-ceptress, for the benefit of Orphans and the less need children entrusted to our care and Of its Daily Military Exercise, We would suggest, that as a means of inuring students to hardship, close discipline, grace of motion and correct posture, no exercise can compare with it; and none is more appropriate in a land which rolles less upon its standing armics, than upon the brave hearts and strong hands of a "Citizen Soldiery." Hon. D. H. Tightman, President of the U. S. Agricultural Society, in his address at the U. S. Fair at Chicago, strongly recommended that milliary tactics should go hand in hand with agriculture, and be taught as an exercise in all our common schools.
